Visitor Information

Welcome to those of you here for the first time. If you have children, they are invited to join the Church School at 10:30 am with our trained teachers. The classroom is located through the door at the front right of the chapel and down the hall; please ask if you need help finding it. The children will join us in church at the Peace and for Communion. All baptized children of any age are welcome to receive communion.

Please join in the singing! Hymnals are located in the pew and the numbers are listed in the leaflet. “S” numbered hymns are found in the front of the Hymnal 1982. The Book of Common Prayer may also be found in the rack in front of you.

We are a self-supporting congregation, so when we pass the plate in the middle of the service, please be generous. Today’s collection will support our ministries to the community.

At the communion, God welcomes all to the heavenly banquet. The Episcopal Church offers the sacraments to anyone baptized in any denomination who, through prayer and thoughtful consideration, desires them. Please come to the communion rail to receive the bread and wine, whether you are an Episcopalian or not, or to receive a blessing.

When coming to the rail for communion, please kneel or stand at the rail from right to left until the rail is full. You may receive both the wafer and wine, the wafer only, or may ask for a blessing. Please let the priest know if you need gluten free.

Our priest, Debbie, is available after the service to answer any questions you might have. Please let her know your thoughts about today’s service.

We ask that you sign the guestbook at the entrance of the church. If you want more information, our website is www.gracechurchsalem.org. Our weekly newsletter, called Grace Notes, can be found there. If you wish to receive the newsletter, simply go to the website, open Grace Notes and subscribe.

We hope you find the service meaningful and the embrace of our community inviting.

Thank you for praying with us today.

1 Samuel 3:1-20

Psalm 139:1-5, 12-17

Robert Knox Kennedy

- 1 Lord, you have searched me out and | known me; *
you know my sitting down and my rising up; you discern my thoughts from a- | far.
- 2 You trace my journeys and my resting- | places *
and are acquainted with all my | ways.
- 3 Indeed, there is not a word on my | lips, *
but you, O Lord, know it alto- | gether.
- 4 You press upon me behind and be- | fore *
and lay your hand u- | pon me.
- +5 Such knowledge is too wonderful for | me; *
it is so high that I cannot attain | to it.
- 12 For you yourself created my inmost | parts; *
you knit me together in my mother's | womb.
- 13 I will thank you because I am marvelously | made; *
your works are wonderful, and I know it | well.
- 14 My body was not hidden from | you, *
while I was being made in secret and woven in the depths of the | earth.
- 15 Your eyes beheld my limbs, yet unfinished in the womb;
all of them were written in your | book; *

they were fashioned day by day,
 when as yet there was | none of them.
 16 How deep I find your thoughts, O | God! *
 how great is the | sum of them!
 17 If I were to count them, they would be more in number than the | sand; *
 to count them all, my life span would need to be like | yours.

Next Sunday

Our music will come from the American music tradition with hymns from The Kentucky Harmony, The Sacred Harp and Southern Harmony.

At our Celtic Service, we will offer prayers and readings that reflect our call to follow Jesus into the hearts and minds of those in need of justice and peace. Rather than a sermon, 2-5 minute reflections are given by attendees to this service. These reflections offer each of us an opportunity to share our encounters with the holy. This evening Nathalie Binney will offer the reflection. Next Sunday, we will hear from Joanne Moar

Following both services, we will get our Bowditch Notebooks back from our buddies so that we may write back to them.

Funeral Services for Marc Hawlena this Saturday

On Saturday 20 January at 11:00 am, we will have a service of Holy Communion to celebrate the life of Marc Hawlena. Marc was a dear friend to many at Grace Church. He was devoted to us and to this parish, serving the community in so many important ways. He was a faithful steward as our Treasurer for over 20 years and loved chairing the May Breakfast each year. But more importantly, he showed his loved of God by loving us. May Marc rest in peace and rise in glory.

Tomorrow at Grace Church

From 10:00 am until 3:00 pm, MagnificatBoston, a Diocesan wide choir that sings Evensong throughout the year, will be at Grace Church recording music for their CD. You may come to quietly listen to this group as it rehearses and records.

At 7:15 pm tomorrow night, the Vestry of Grace Church will meet to vote on the 2018 Budget to be presented at Annual Meeting, to consider the slate of candidates for Vestry, Deanery and Diocesan Convention, and to discuss strategies for greater viability for our future. All members are welcome to attend any Vestry meeting.

Coffee Hour

Following the service today, coffee hour will be hosted by Barbara Layne. Thank you to all who have signed up to host coffee hour.
