

Celtic Meditations:

Pentecost IV

17 June 2018 5:00 pm

We are so happy you are here.

*We come from many places to be together for a little while.
Each of us brings our own experience and traditions to this gathering.*

So here in this place, let us take time together to encounter the holy.

Opening Meditation

Out of the silence at the beginning of time
You spoke the Word of life.
Out of the world's primeval darkness
You flooded the universe with light.
In the quiet of this place
In the dark of the night
I wait and watch.
In the stillness of my soul
And from its fathomless depths
The senses of my heart are awake to you.
For fresh soundings of life
For new showings of light
I search in the silence of my spirit, O God.

- John Philip Newell from Celtic Benediction

Affirmation (said by all)

We believe in God, Creator of all:

The two-legged, the four-legged,
the winged ones, and those that crawl upon the earth
and swim in the waters.

We believe in God, One Who Walked with Us:

Our Brother Jesus born in humility, who lived and died for us and
who will come again to bring us to glory.

We believe in God, Spirit with Us:

Ever present and ever guiding, upholding us and showing us the principles to live by.

We hear God's voice through the prophets.

Creator, One Who Walked with Us, Spirit with Us, Holy One:

We are named in the waters of baptism as your own,
all of us related, all of us your children.

We watch for signs of your homecoming and thank you for this sacred circle of life. Amen.

Opening Hymn

Breathe on me breath of God

The Hymnal 1982 #508

Evening Prayer Lord, in this sacred place where even the stones speak of your name, help me to be still and know that I am enfolded in your love.. Amen.

Please be seated

The Reading

Mark 4:26-34

Listen now to the Word of God.

Jesus said, "The kingdom of God is as if someone would scatter seed on the ground, and would sleep and rise night and day, and the seed would sprout and grow, he does not know how. The earth produces of itself, first the stalk, then the head, then the full grain in the head. But when the grain is ripe, at once he goes in with his sickle, because the harvest has come."

He also said, "With what can we compare the kingdom of God, or what parable will we use for it? It is like a mustard seed, which, when sown upon the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on earth; yet when it is sown it grows up and becomes the greatest of all shrubs, and puts forth large branches, so that the birds of the air can make nests in its shade."

With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it; he did not speak to them except in parables, but he explained everything in private to his disciples.

Lector For the Word of God in Scripture, for the Word of God among us, and for the Word of God within us.

People* Thanks be to God.

Prayers for Ourselves and Others

Leader In our daily tasks,

People* God surrounds us.

Leader In our successes and failures,

People* God surrounds us.

Leader In our joys and sorrows,

People* God surrounds us.

Leader With the healing of our world,

People* God surrounds us.

Leader We pray for all who celebrate, or seek, or need God's love:

Here, the people may add particular intercessions or thanksgivings.

Leader As we end our day,

People God surrounds us in hope.

Leader Jesus says, “Come to me you who are troubled and I will give you rest.” So come, you who are broken in body or in spirit, you who are torn by relationships and doubt, you who feel deeply within yourselves the divisions of the world. Come, for Jesus invites us to bring our brokenness.

Light Prayers

From now until the end of the service, you are invited to come to the Lady Altar and light a candle and kneel at the rail for prayers.

The laying on of hands is also offered at the healing station near the door at the back of the Chapel.

Please feel free to move about as the Spirit leads you.

The Grace

May the grace of the night’s stillness be mine, the grace of the moon’s guidance be mine, the grace of the heaven’s vastness be mine to renew my soul in sleep until the angels of light awaken me. Amen.

The Peace

The Holy Communion

Eucharistic Prayer

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you

Celebrant Lift up your hearts

People We lift them to the Lord

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Celebrant O God of mystery and promise, you invite us to discover you in the intimate places of ourselves and our lives. You invite us to discover you within the complexities of our humanity, in passionate and tender loving, in struggle and pain, in confusion and unknowing, in flashes of insight and wisdom. You also call us beyond ourselves to places of imagination, beyond the silent stars, in the deep rhythms of the ocean, in the unending cycles of day and night, seasons of life and death.

With saints and ancestors, with the seas and earth and sky, with animals and birds, with our friends and those unknown to us, with all creation we join in the song of your unending glory:

People Holy, holy, holy Lord. God of power and might. Heaven and earth are full of your glory.
Hosanna in the highest. Blessed is the one who comes in the Name of the Lord.
Hosanna in the highest.

Celebrant We praise you that in Jesus you make known to us the wonder and richness of our humanity. We give thanks for his life-giving love, for his healing touch, for his vulnerability and for his gentleness. Before he gave up his life, he shared his humanity, his flesh and blood with his friends. He took bread, gave thanks for it, broke it and gave it to them saying:

All “This is my own body given for you. Do this to remember me.”

Celebrant So too after they had eaten, he took wine, gave thanks for it and gave it to them saying:

All* “This is my blood, poured out in love for you. Do this to remember me.”

Celebrant So we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All* Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

Celebrant Holy and gracious God, present with us now, send in kindness your Holy Spirit to settle on this bread and wine and fill them with the fullness of Jesus. As we eat and drink these bodily things, make us one body, food for the world, one blood to be poured out for the life of all. Touch us with your gentle creativity and fire us with longing for the new age of justice and peace. We ask this through Jesus who gave his body that we might be one and his blood that we might find new life. With him, and through him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, be to you, O God, all honor and glory forever.

AMEN.

The Lord’s Prayer

The Breaking of the Bread

Celebrant This is the table, not of the Church, but of the Lord.

It is made ready for those who love him and for those who want to love him more.

So come, you who have much faith and you who have little,

You who have been here often, and you who have not been here long,

you who have tried to follow and you who have failed.

Come, because it is the Lord who invites you.

It is his will that those who want him should meet him here.

Communion

All are invited to come and feast at God’s table.

You may receive the bread in your hand, and if you wish, drink from the cup.

Concluding Prayer

All* Jesus, you revealed yourself to the world so that all people might look to you and be saved: May we, who have received you as you are revealed in the breaking of bread, know the wholeness you bring. Be our light in the darkness that we may not stumble, and lift us up again if we fall; and may we bring this light into the world. Amen.

Concluding Blessing

Celebrant May you learn to see yourself with the same delight, pride, and expectation with which God sees you in every moment. May the blessing of Almighty God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, be with us all evermore. Amen.

Dismissal

Celebrant Go in peace, resting in the love of God.

All Thanks be to God.

Visitor Information

Welcome to those of you here for the first time.

All are welcome by God to the heavenly banquet. The Episcopal Church offers the sacraments to anyone baptized in any denomination who, through prayer and thoughtful consideration, desires them. Please come to the communion rail to receive the bread and wine, whether you are an Episcopalian or not, or to receive a blessing.

We are a self-supporting congregation. Everyone is welcome to “come as you are” to our services, especially the Celtic Service. However, if you would like to make a gift tonight, there is a basket on your way out. If you would like to make a pledge, (a commitment for the year), please take a pledge card found on the table at the door, fill it out and place it in the plate. Any amount to support this important ministry is greatly appreciated. Today’s collection will support our ministries to the community.

Gluten free? The bread offered at the Celtic service is gluten-free, baked by the priest.

Debbie, the priest, will be available after the service to answer any questions you might have. Please let her know how your thoughts about tonight’s service.

We ask that you sign the guestbook at the entrance of the church.

If you want more information, our web address is www.gracechurchsalem.org. Our weekly newsletter, called Grace Notes can also be found there. If you wish to receive the newsletter, simply go to the website, open Grace Notes and subscribe.

Little Free Libraries with Bowditch Scholars: Little Free Libraries are small structures with books for borrowing that are built and then placed or erected throughout Salem. We will be building a library with a small group of the scholars from Bowditch and the Collins Middle School on Wednesday from 2:00—3:15pm at the Collins. There is more information about Little Free Libraries at <https://littlefreelibrary.org>. If interested, please signup on the sheet in the Lobby.

If you have questions, please contact Eric Wagner at ericmwagner@gmail.com.

Weeding Wednesdays are a big hit!!! Every Wednesday running through the summer, we invite everyone to join us from 5:30 pm to 6:30 pm for some weeding fun! Each week we'll gather in the garden for prayer through conversations and weeding. If you just want to show up for the company, please know we'd love to have you. Bring your kids and pets too. Why not put this on your calendar on your phone now so that you are reminded each week of this invitation? See you Wednesday!

End of Year Lunch and Talent Show: This will be the fourth year of the Nathaniel Bowditch School Lunch and Talent Show. It will take place on Wednesday, June 27 from 11:30 - 12:45. We are looking for people to bring oranges, cookies and water. We will order the main meal to be delivered. We also need people to assist serving the meal and then to support the scholars as they provide us with the show. Let's have a good showing so that they know that Grace Church continues to support them as they end this year and get ready to attend the Collins Middle School and the Saltonstall School.
